What makes you choose to study in Thailand and study at UTCC International?

I felt it will bring many business and job opportunities to the international students

I chose to study in Thailand as I felt it will bring many business and job opportunities to the international students, as we all know that Thailand is one of the strongest economies in Southeast Asia, and it has a large economic potential due to the growth of the economy. Thailand is a large importing-exporting country which has trading activities among the ASEAN countries and all around the world. China, especially, has become the biggest importing partner of Thailand, due to the One Belt One Road policy which will encourage the business activities and create more connection between the two countries and its people, in terms of bilateral trade, cultural, and economic activities. Therefore studying in Thailand is the right choice for me and a wonderful opportunity for international students to explore, discover, and to develop business ideas.

UTCC International provides the high standard of education by the professional faculty members. The courses are fully taught in English which will enhance international students to practice and improve on their business English skills. The most important aspect for me is that UTCC International College (IC), as an international and business college, has a direct connection with the Thai Chamber of Commerce, and many business and academic networks all around the world such as the Alibaba and Apple partnerships. So what is a better choice than to study business in a college that is connected with the Thai Chamber of Commerce?

This is the place to be!

What makes your experience of study at UTCC International so extraordinary?

This university provides me with a chance to define myself again! For so long time I was not motivated and lacked self-confidence since my studies in Australia. I had plans but lacked the power of action, I had a plan towards self-improvement but lacked integrity. Life seemed to be meaningless and repetitive in its nature, and I lived in my comfort zone. At UTCC international, I started to break my cage and the light seemed to come into my life. I have got many friends from different nationalities, the international and friendly atmosphere leads the connection and friendship among the students in this global community, I have also met many great students and teachers and I have a meaningful friendship with them; UTCC IC simply defines my concept of friendship.

There are many challenging and meaningful activities; every student will get a chance to participate in activities and we all can learn and practice our business skills during the activities. For example, the China-ASEAN Ambassadors program truly built up my confidence and inspired my business thinking as we went to four ASEAN countries including Cambodia, Laos, Vietnam and Myanmar. This trip provided us with a deeper understanding of the culture, lifestyle, and economies of ASEAN countries, and we gained more business insights during the exploring of business opportunities. The Paris trip is also a remarkable journey, which allows us to experience and to feel the French lifestyle, and explores the world-famous landscape. That was such a wonderful and unforgettable journey for me.

This university provides me with a chance to define myself again!

UTCC allows me to define, to improve myself through the challenging competition and to learn from those memorable journeys. UTCC international has many networks and cooperating partners at a global level. Therefore UTCC International offers many exchange programs in different countries, including Japan, USA, France, Germany, Peru and among others. These amazing exchange programs open up the whole world to us, and encourage us to explore and define the world by ourselves.

Do you do business?

“UTCC International inspires me into a new business thinking and has already lead me to great outcomes”

As a future great businessman, I am already participating in my family business in various areas such as marketing, doing research, translating and accounting. I am mainly in charge of the international branch of our business; our business is about the industrial gases that can be applied to almost any type of constructions, iron & steel, electronic and manufacturing industries. UTCC International inspires me into a new business thinking and has already led me to great outcomes. It provided me with the opportunity to visit Myanmar, and I discussed and explored the business market with my respected host family. Now it turns out that our business has officially been established in Yangon, Myanmar, and I do think we will get more chances to discover business in more countries and to get more powerful support from our respected Dean and the college. Please allow me to address my huge appreciation to our respected Dean Dr. Jakarin, Associate Dean Ajarn New and brother J.V for arranging this business trip and make our business happened in Myanmar.

I have a couple short-term plans and I'm on the way to achieve those, one of which is to become a great businessman, having my own company within 4 years during my study in UTCC IC so that I can learn and apply what I have learned from here, enroll and encourage students in our university to start their business and join in more activities to contribute to our university. In terms of my long-term plans, I wish to define the industry business in ASEAN countries, starting from the gas industry. I would like to anticipate more business activities that help create new technology and innovation in the industrial fields among ASEAN countries. My lifelong plan is that I think there is only one standard of success, which is to live my whole life in the way that I want. I will always pursue, explore the world, and challenge myself.

What is your future plan?

How is your love life?

I find love among the friendly interactions with students and teachers here, it's an international family full of love, and I wish to find my personal love too.

“I’m different”

UTCC INTERNATIONAL

“I became a new person in this world! Since I came here and stepped my feet into this Global Community, I have been starting to dare to be different, to learn about differences in culture, to have a creative mindset and have integrity in order to be a leader of myself, my family and my community. “I started to leave my past to the past that I am not capable enough and live in the present looking forward to the future!”

Before coming here, I was a quiet boy and had not talked much to the people around me. But since I came here, I dare to believe in myself and the world. I have been asked, “Son! Why you changed a lot, I can’t even recognize you!””, my parents said. This is the reason why I am changed in the positive way. As my dream is to become an International Businessman, UTCC International is the right place for me to start following my dream.”

The future of Accounting

“Dare to be Different”

Dr. Wasinee Thammasiri (Program Director of the Bachelor of Accountancy)

The International Federation of Accountants (IFAC) expects that globalization will create more opportunities and challenges for members of the accounting profession. Firms will operate in many countries with different languages, cultures, laws, regulations, and business environment. The ability to learn and the commitment to lifetime learning are necessary for accounting professions. International exposures during college years can help future accountants to understand and thrive in culturally diverse workforce. Globalization expands the market, which brings more customers and competitors. Customers can compare prices of products or services from sellers around the world in just several clicks on a computer or smartphone. Cost information becomes the key factor for the business to earn profit.

Technology will release accountants from daily manual recording of transactions. Roles of accountants will change from just reporting historical data to becoming a business partner and consultant to business owners. Future of accounting profession is bright; however, accounting knowledge alone will not be sufficient for this era. Leadership, business soft skills, technological skills, finance knowledge, and economic knowledge will help accounting graduates to succeed in their career.

UTCC International hereby proudly presents “The Winners of Dare to Dream Competition”.

“The best thing about this UTCC MBA course is that it is based on real-life challenges all the way from day one of our course such as assignments, group projects, classroom activities and so on. This made it so much different from any other educational providers which are mainly based on theoretical practices. Talking from a graduating student's perspective, I believe the stories created beyond the boundaries of the University have been equally helpful to the graduates.”

Jonathan Lin Tun Kyaw (MBA Batch 7 Yangon)

“Graduating from UTCC is a huge milestone for me. It is a celebration of success that students like myself get to enjoy as a result of our hard work over the past year or so. A truly memorable and happy occasion for all students and families.”

Henry Maw (MBA Batch 7 Yangon)

"The moment I went into the convocation hall, I really felt the sense of my greatest achievement because it was a milestone I would be proud of for the rest of my life! Congratulations to Class of 2017 graduates and I would like to wish you all a very successful journey of life, and of course, as a proud UTCC graduate!"

Myo Myint Aung (MBA Batch 6 Yangon)

“The reason I chose UTCC for studying MBA is that it is not only popular one among universities but also it has excellent teachers and infrastructure. The university also offers the best recreational facilities for the physical and mental relaxation of the students. I was impressed and inspired by the study contents of UTCC.”

Sandar Khine (MBA Batch 7 Yangon)

“The MBA at UTCC International had given me invaluable experience working through real-life business problems. The professors provided me with real-world examples of how the concepts I was learning in class are being applied in the business world. I am so proud of myself and my colleagues for this great achievement.”

Htet Myat Thu (MBA Batch 3 Mandalay)

“Honestly I was too excited on the graduation day. It was so wonderful how the local students welcomed us and to see international students who were excited as well as their parents. The smiles on each and everyone's faces were priceless and we could feel the greatness of UTCC and its networks. Taking the MBA program at UTCC International was the smartest decision I have ever made.”
